	Jayon Dunn RG For allowing another child to have his turn in the sand and giving up his own turn.	Rayah Hanif 3/4MW For picking up a reception child's coat that had been left in the playground.

4W Class Assembly

Class 4W performed their class assembly this morning. The theme was 'Love'. They sang, danced and read beautifully. It was a brilliant performance. A big thank you to Mrs Winters and Miss Selmes for their hard work. Well done to all the children.

Business Enterprise

The Business Enterprise Group organised the Valentine's Disco last Tuesday. Well done to all concerned. It was a great success. They managed to raise £102 for school funds.

Year Six pupil chosen to join the Aston Villa Development Team

Simon Chin in 6SH has been chosen to join the Aston Villa Development Team because of his excellent footballing skills. He will go training with Aston Villa every Wednesday evening and will take part in football tournaments. Well done Simon.

Active Kids Day

Classes 1B, 5/6S & 6SH have all taken part in Active Kids Days at Hamstead Hall Community Learning Centre. The children took part in a variety of activities such as archery, team building skills and making shelters. Jahmiah Farquharson was particularly praised for his excellent team leading skills.

Tennis Taster Sessions

On Wednesday 15 February a tennis coach from Springfield Tennis Club came into school. Each class had a tennis session with him and were given vouchers for 2 free lessons and a year's free membership at Springfield Tennis Club. The children really enjoyed their session in school and I could see that we have some future Wimbledon Players in the making!!
